

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Carrie Pryor

Senior Partner, Korn Ferry International

Introduction

Carrie Pryor is a senior partner specializing in media, entertainment and technology for Korn Ferry International, the world's largest executive search firm. Over a 19-year career, Carrie has worked with senior executives and board members for multinational and early state companies from around the world. Well-known in the industry, Carrie has been quoted in Fortune magazine and CareerJournal, for the Wall Street Journal online.

Experience

Carrie's recent projects include working with CEOs and top-level executives at Westwood One, America's largest radio network; Lodgenet, the leading provider of media and connectivity solutions for the hospitality and healthcare industries; Newsweek, Fox Mobile Entertainment/Jamba, Fox Interactive Media, Credit Suisse and Biz 360, a California-based analyst firm. Prior to becoming an executive recruiter, Carrie was an investment banker at Kidder Peabody and headed a business unit for Pacific Telesis.

Education

- B.A. from the University of Michigan with honors and distinction in Chinese Studies
- MBA from the University of California, Berkeley in Finance

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

Carrie is currently working on a book with a unique twist on senior executives and the path to success in the marketplace. She is very active in her community of Greenwich, Connecticut, and serves on the Boards for the Arch Street Teen Center and the Public Library.