

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Diana Scott

Introduction

Diana P. Scott has been recognized by California Lawyer as the "Southern California Super Lawyer," and one of the Top 50 Female "Super Lawyers," for the past four consecutive years. As the Co-Chair of the National Labor and Employment Group at Greenberg Traurig LLP, she represents clients in litigation and trial in all types of employment disputes. This year she was listed in Best Lawyers in America for her outstanding work as well as named The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's "Woman of the Year."

Experience

Diana's vast labor and employment experience includes multiple defense jury trial verdicts for senior corporate officers accused of sexual harassment. She has represented some of the major motion picture studios, insurance companies, international companies and banks against claims of gender, religions, race and age, harassment, discrimination and Americans with Disability Act violations. Diana has provided in-house training seminars to over 1,000 supervisors on harassment and workplace investigations. She has represented clients in all sorts of labor and employment issues, including sex, race, age and disability harassment and discrimination; class actions, including wage and law violations; whistle blowing; corporate officers' liability and defense; defamation; fraud; invasion of privacy; drug testing; wrongful termination; trade secrets; unfair competition; and wage and hour violations. Diana also prepares employment contracts, severance and partnership agreements, workplace policies and procedures manuals, drug testing policies, and harassment and discrimination policies, as well as providing preventative counseling and in-house seminars.

Education

Diana received her B.A. from the University of California at Berkeley and her J.D. at the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law.

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

Diana is a member of numerous organizations including: Association of Business Trial Lawyers, University of the Pacific Alumni Board, as well as being involved with several committees within the Los Angeles County Bar. She has written countless articles for the top law publications as well given numerous lectures and speeches to a variety of audiences.