

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Jane Moran
Global Program Mgr
Executive Coach, Coach Trainer
EDS Global Learning & Development

Introduction

Jane Moran is an internal executive coach, in her role at EDS Global Learning & Development. In addition she is the global program manager and professional coach trainer, for their internal ICF accredited coach training curriculum, which will have involved 80 EDS leaders from nine countries by end of this year. Jane coaches, trains and presents to leaders around the world on the topic of coaching as a powerful leadership tool for thinking through change and generating high performance.

Experience

As an executive coach, Jane has worked with leaders across 14 countries for the past 8 years. She established EDS' first internal coaching program in 2004. As a coaching skills instructor for Results Coaching Systems she taught leaders a brain-based approach to coaching, that helps them to facilitate change by helping others in the organization to think in new ways to come up with the best solutions. Jane delivers coach training and transformational change presentations in UK, Canada, US and Australia.

Education

Jane completed her studies in professional coaching with Results Coaching Systems (Sydney Australia). She is also an ICF certified coach. She holds a degree in Communication and draws on her additional study of philosophy, Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) and archetypal psychology, to assist leaders in bringing about positive change on an individual level that brings with it increased organizational success and wider client and community benefit.

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

Jane has an article on internal coaching at EDS to be published in "Global Business & Organizational Excellence" this month.