

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Karlin Sloan: Founder and President, Karlin Sloan Company

Introduction

As the founder and president of Karlin Sloan & Company Ms. Sloan provides organization development consulting, leadership development programs, and executive coaching program coordination to clients the U.S., Europe, South America and Asia. She has helped individuals and organizations to develop clearer, more effective communication, enhanced teamwork, and powerful leadership in times of growth and change.

Experience

Considered a thought leader in executive coaching, Ms. Sloan is a founding member of the International Consortium for Coaching in Organizations, giving her access to a worldwide network of top coaching talent. Ms. Sloan has been featured in The Los Angeles Times, The Christian Science Monitor, and numerous other publications as an expert in workplace behavior. Fortune Small Business Magazine recognized Ms. Sloan for her consulting work with organizations in New York City following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. She has appeared on ABC News Network's "Moneyscope", Fox Channel Five's "Good Day New York" as well as Boston Cable Network's series "The Art of Coaching".

Education

- BA from Mills College
- MA in clinical psychology from the San Francisco School of Professional Psychology
- Executive coach certification through the William James Institute's Center for Executive Coaching
- Appreciative Inquiry studies at Case Western Reserve University
- Certified administrator, HBDI
- Certified administrator, MBTI

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

- Smarter, Faster, Better; Strategies for Effective, Enduring, and Fulfilled Leadership, Jossey-Bass, 2006
- Executive Coach, a quarterly column for Executive Travel Magazine
- Keeping Your Coach Accountable, OD Practitioner, Volume 35, No. 2, 2005
- Are We Asking the Right Questions? ASTD OD/Leadership Network News, Volume 2, Issue 1, January 2004
- Coaching on Purpose, OD Practitioner, Volume 37, No. 2, 2003