

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Maya Hu-Chan

President, Global Leadership Associates

Introduction

Maya Hu-Chan is an international management consultant, certified executive coach, author, public speaker and leadership development educator, specializing in global leadership, executive coaching and cross-cultural business skills.

Experience

Harvard Business School has chosen her book “Global Leadership: The Next Generation” to be one of their Working Knowledge recommended books. This book was translated and published in Chinese.

Maya has directly coached over 3,000 leaders in Global Fortune 500 companies and worked with major corporations throughout North America, Asia, Europe, South America, and Australia.

She is a contributing author of the following books:

- “Leading the Global Workforce”
- “Best Practices in Leading the Global Workforce”
- “Coaching for Leadership: How the World’s Greatest Coaches Help Leaders Learn”
- “Partnering: The New Face of Leadership”
- “A Study in Excellence: Management in the Nonprofit Human Services”

Maya has an extensive list of publications of management, leadership, global business skills, multicultural teambuilding, as well as a well-received series of Working in China, Taiwan, South Korea, Malaysia, and Singapore. Prior to her consulting career, Maya was an anchor for the China Broadcasting Company in Taiwan. She has lectured at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD), University of Southern California (USC), and International MBA Program at University of Chicago.

Education

Born and raised in Taiwan, Maya received her B.A. from National Chengchi University in Taiwan, and Master’s degree from Annenberg School of Communications, University of Pennsylvania.

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

- Certified Executive Coach
- Certified provider of Myers-Briggs Type Indicator
- Member, The Alexcel Group
- Member, The Institute of Executive Development
- International Advisor, Worldwide Association of Business Coaches (WABC)
- Former Board of Director for the Girl Scouts, San Diego-Imperial County; Commission of the Status for Women (City of San Diego); Workforce Development Council; and Asian Business Association of San Diego.