

Insight on Coaching – Guest Bio

Ursula Pottinga, Certified Coach, Certified Prosperity Guide

Introduction

Ursula is the President of Compass Coaching and Consulting and Co-Founder of AmeriCoach. She is a leadership coach and prosperity guide, specializing in working with owners and managers of small hotels, bed and breakfast and retreat centers. It is her belief that the most important thing we can do in our lives is to explore, experience and work with the spiritual principles that teach us what we must learn in this lifetime and that our lives, our work and our relationships are simply the spiritual gym that help us build that muscle.

Experience

She has been working in the field of Professional Development for the past 20 years and as an independent Leadership Coach for the past 8 years. Some of her roles have included:

- Working with Managers and Supervisors in the Hospitality Industry in companies such as Hilton Hotels and Holiday Inn.
- Co-founding the non-profit organization AmeriCoach 4 years ago and leading that organization as Executive Director for the past two years
- Co-Creating training and workshop curriculum for AmeriCoach and the Leadership Development Programs that are it's mission
- As owner and president of Compass Coaching, Creating and leading trainings on other competencies such as Change Management, Cultural Awareness and workshops on Financial and Spiritual Breakthroughs.
- Obtaining Coaching Certification through the ICF accredited coaching school CTI and obtaining Prosperity Guide certification.

Education

Ursula has a Degree in Hospitality Management from International Hotel in Bad Reichenhall, Germany.

Professional Affiliations, Publications and Recognition

- Co-author of the Book: A Guide to Getting It: Remarkable Management Skills
- Co-author of the weekly e-zine “ Weekly Abundance Reminders”
- Ursula was a co-presenter at the ICF conference in Brussels and for the past 8 years has frequently lead workshops and break-out sessions at Regional Conference held here in Minnesota – both for the non-profit and corporate sector.
- Ursula coaches clients internationally and is bi-lingual, speaking German and English.